

INDEX

- Abramson, Victor, cited, 187
- Advertising
 examination of, by Federal Trade Commission, 5 newspaper, volume of, 6, 58
 radio achievements of, 5
   as means of financing the system, 1, 63-64, 97-101, 184
   comparison with other media, 5-6
   competition between press and, 58-59
   growth of, 5-6
   volume of, 6, 58
- Agassiz, J. L. R., 116
- Allocation of facilities
 for frequency modulation, 157
 for television, 134, 136
- AMERICAN LISTENER IN 1940, THE, Paul F. Peter, 1-8
- Arciniegas, Germán, cited, 116
- Aristotle, 138
- ARMSTRONG, EDWIN H., Frequency Modulation and Its Future Uses, 153-161
 cited, 172, 177
- Asquith, Herbert H., 50
- Bacon, Francis, 142
- Baird, John Logie, 144
- Baker, Norman, 42
- Baldwin, Stanley, 50
- BARBOUR, PHILIP L., Open Questions in Inter-American Broadcasting, 116-124
 cited, 116
- Barrett, Alfredo, 121
- BARTLETT, KENNETH G., Trends in Radio Programs, 15-25
 cited, 38
- Benny, Jack, 27
- Berrien, William, 122
- Beville, H. M., Jr., cited, 35
- Boleyn, Anne, 88
- Bonpland, Aimé, 116
- Bowen, James, 89
- Bowes, Edward ("Major"), 26
- Bowman, Robert, 87
- Breckinridge, Mary Marvin, 84, 87
- Briand, Aristide, 117
- Brinkley, John R., 42
- British Broadcasting Corporation
 as spokesman for the Government, 48-50
 control of
   in peacetime, 47
   in wartime, 47-48
 Empire service of, 118
 inauguration of North American service by, 79-80
 position of, in strike of 1926, 48-50
- See also* Broadcasting—in Great Britain
- BRITISH BROADCASTING OF DISCUSSIONS OF PUBLIC QUESTIONS, Eric Estorick, 47-53
- Broadcasters
 as guarantors of free speech, 43-44
 as stewards in the public interest, 94-95
 create monopoly of propaganda, 71
 develop own news service, 54
 freedom of, compared with publishers, 93-94 liability of, for speakers, 45
 liberty of, must be curtailed, 108
 public opinion best check on, 66-67
 value of fan mail to,
 viewpoints of, re regulation, 109, 110-115
See also National Association of Broadcasters, Code of
- Broadcasting
 as an aid to learning, 31-36
 as financed by advertising, 63-64, 97
 as instrument in creating European war, 75-82
 as news medium, 54-61
   definition of, 116
 early administration of, 109
 first public broadcast, 54, 170
 influence of
   on culture, 9-14, 114
   on society, 6-7, 62-68
 in Germany, 75-82
   attempts to influence United States, 80-82
   control of, 70-71
 in Great Britain, 47-53, 75-82
   attempts to influence United States, 79-80
   of controversial subjects, 52-53
   of economic issues, 52
   of political discussion, 50-52
 interbelligent, 76-78
 latest developments in, effects of, 125-129
 licenses for issuance of, 103
   length of, 112
 nonpartisan policy of, 107-108
 of civic discussion, 37-46
 regulation
   in the public interest, 102-108
   self-regulation in, 93-96
   versus free competition, 97-101
 relationship of the industry to Government, 109, 187-188
See also British Broadcasting Corporation;
 News by radio; Short wave broadcasting
- BROADCASTING AND AMERICAN SOCIETY, William S. Paley, 62-68
- Brown, Cecil, 85, 86
- Brucker, Herbert, cited, 185
- Bryson, Lyman, 39, 41, 121

INDEX

- Abramson, Victor, cited, 187
- Advertising
 examination of, by Federal Trade Commission, 5
 newspaper, volume of, 6, 58
 radio
   achievements of, 5
   as means of financing the system, 1, 63-64, 97-101, 184
   comparison with other media, 5-6
   competition between press and, 58-59
   growth of, 5-6
   volume of, 6, 58
- Agassiz, J. L. R., 116
- Allocation of facilities
 for frequency modulation, 157
 for television, 134, 136
- AMERICAN LISTENER IN 1940, THE, Paul F. Peter, 1-8
- Arciniegas, Germán, cited, 116
- Aristotle, 138
- ARMSTRONG, EDWIN H., Frequency Modulation and Its Future Uses, 153-161
 cited, 172, 177
- Asquith, Herbert H., 50
- Bacon, Francis, 142
- Baird, John Logie, 144
- Baker, Norman, 42
- Baldwin, Stanley, 50
- BARBOUR, PHILIP L., Open Questions in Inter-American Broadcasting, 116-124
 cited, 116
- Barrett, Alfredo, 121
- BARTLETT, KENNETH G., Trends in Radio Programs, 15-25
 cited, 38
- Benny, Jack, 27
- Berrien, William, 122
- Beville, H. M., Jr., cited, 35
- Boleyn, Anne, 88
- Bonpland, Aimé, 116
- Bowen, James, 89
- Bowes, Edward ("Major"), 26
- Bowman, Robert, 87
- Breckinridge, Mary Marvin, 84, 87
- Briand, Aristide, 117
- Brinkley, John R., 42
- British Broadcasting Corporation
 as spokesman for the Government, 48-50
 control of
   in peacetime, 47
   in wartime, 47-48
 Empire service of, 118
 inauguration of North American service by, 79-80
 position of, in strike of 1926, 48-50
- See also* Broadcasting—in Great Britain
- BRITISH BROADCASTING OF DISCUSSIONS OF PUBLIC QUESTIONS, Eric Estorick, 47-53
- Broadcasters
 as guarantors of free speech, 43-44
 as stewards in the public interest, 94-95
 create monopoly of propaganda, 71
 develop own news service, 54
 freedom of, compared with publishers, 93-94
 liability of, for speakers, 45
 liberty of, must be curtailed, 108
 public opinion best check on, 66-67
 value of fan mail to,
 viewpoints of, re regulation, 109, 110-115
See also National Association of Broadcasters, Code of
- Broadcasting
 as an aid to learning, 31-36
 as financed by advertising, 63-64, 97
 as instrument in creating European war, 75-82
 as news medium, 54-61
   definition of, 116
 early administration of, 109
 first public broadcast, 54, 170
 influence of
   on culture, 9-14, 114
   on society, 6-7, 62-68
 in Germany, 75-82
   attempts to influence United States, 80-82
   control of, 70-71
 in Great Britain, 47-53, 75-82
   attempts to influence United States, 79-80
   of controversial subjects, 52-53
   of economic issues, 52
   of political discussion, 50-52
 interbelligent, 76-78
 latest developments in, effects of, 125-129
 licenses for issuance of, 103
   length of, 112
 nonpartisan policy of, 107-108
 of civic discussion, 37-46
 regulation
   in the public interest, 102-108
   self-regulation in, 93-96
   versus free competition, 97-101
 relationship of the industry to Government, 109, 187-188
See also British Broadcasting Corporation;
 News by radio; Short wave broadcasting
- BROADCASTING AND AMERICAN SOCIETY, William S. Paley, 62-68
- Brown, Cecil, 85, 86
- Brucker, Herbert, cited, 185
- Bryson, Lyman, 39, 41, 121

- Burlingame, Roger, cited, 65
quoted, 64-65, 67
- Caldwell, Louis G., cited, 42, 188
- Cameron, William J., 70
- Canterbury, Archbishop of, 49, 50
- Cantril, Hadley, cited, 81
- Censorship
and the N.A.B. Code, 44 foreign correspondent becomes self-censor, 91 government versus private, 106
in Germany, 91
in Great Britain, 47-48, 71, 91
in refusal to renew licenses, 42, 45 of political speeches, 113 of programs, 42, 112-115 power of licensing authority over, 42, 94 press supports radio in cases of, 60-61
See also Freedom of speech
- Chamberlain, Neville, 51
- Chaplin, Charles, 138, 143
- Charles I, 88
- Charters, W. W., 31
- Children's programs, 11-12, 21
preference as to type of, 12 suggestions for improvement of, 12-13
- Churchill, Winston, 72, 73
- CIVIC DISCUSSION OVER THE AIR, Arthur Garfield Hays, 37-46
- Clay, Henry (Professor), 50
- Cole, Walton, 44
- Columbus, Christopher, 116
- Commercial messages development of copy "for the ear," 24 improvement in, 27
length of, 19
- Coughlin, Charles E., 44, 70
- Court decisions
re freedom of speech over radio, 96, 106 re liability of broadcasters, 45
re renewal of licenses, 42-43 re restraint in advance of publication, 43
re technical control, 94
- COVERING A WAR FOR RADIO, Paul W. White, 83-92 organizing the staff, 84-85 qualifications of correspondents, 85 scheduling difficulties, 86
- Cox, James M., 54, 170
- Craven, T. A. M., Radio Frontiers, 125-129
cited, 113, 173
- Curtis, Alberta, cited, 35
- Damrosch, Walter, 67
- Davis, Elmer, 86
- Dempsey, William J., and William C. Kopolovitz, Radio Economics and the Public Interest, 97-101
- Denny, George, 40
- De Voto, Bernard, cited, 63
- Dickens, Charles, 116
- Disney, Walt (Walter E.), 138
- Durant, Henry, cited, 78
- Durant, Ruth, cited, 78
- Dykema, Peter W., 10
- Echlin, Erland, 84
- Edison, Thomas A., 1, 146
- Education by radio broadcasts to schools, 32 disagreement on problems of, 34 opportunities for, 31-36
"public service" programs, 32 reasons for offering programs of, 33 role of noncommercial stations in, 33-34 success of, 31
use of ultrahigh frequency stations in, 35-36
See also Programs—educational
- Eisenberg, Azriel L., 12, 13
cited, 11
- Electrical transcriptions increased use of, 19
See also Rebroadcasting, growth of
- Eliot, George Fielding, 86
- Elizabeth, Queen of England, 88
- ENGSTROM, ELMER W., Recent Developments in Television, 130-137
cited, 174
- ESTORICK, ERIC, British Broadcasting of Discussions of Public Questions, 47-53
- ETHRIDGE, MARK, The Government and Radio, 109-115
cited, 188
- EUROPEAN RADIO AND THE WAR, Harold N. Graves, Jr., 75-82
- Evaluation of School Broadcasts
purpose of, 35
studies made by, 34-35
- Facsimile
advantages of, 173-174
as competitor of newspapers, 61, 128 of telegraph services, 126, 168, 169 compared with television, 162
definition of, 162
future uses of, 125-126, 165-169, 174
home service, development of, 167-168 practical applications of, 164-165
problems in, 173, 181
quality of material reproduced by, 172 receiver, description of, 162-163 recording systems, 163-164 results of experimental broadcasts, 171-172 value of, to advertisers, 183
- FACSIMILE AND ITS FUTURE USES, John V. L. Hogan, 162-169
- Faraday, Michael, 146
- Federal Communications Commission as regulator in the public interest, 102-108 criticism of allocation policy of, 99-100

- powers of, 42
   re censorship, 112-113
   re license renewals, 45, 103 problems of, 103
 program analysis made by, 4, 15-16 relationship between the industry and, 109-115
Federal Radio Education Committee
   origin of, 34
   studies made by, 11, 34-35, 39
   results of, 35
FLY, JAMES LAWRENCE, Regulation of Radio Broadcasting in the Public Interest, 102-108
   cited, 115
Ford, Henry, 70
Franco, Francisco, 71
Frankfurter, Felix, 93
Freedom of speech, 37-46 and government ownership, 37-38
   and the N.A.B. Code, 44, 96
   a question of rights, not privileges, 42
   as means of discovering truth, 105-106 Constitutional guarantees of, 42
   for minority groups, 40, 45 guarded by broadcasters, 43-44
   in Colonial days, 37
   over radio as compared with the press, 37, 42-43, 59-61, 93-94, 107
   See also Censorship; Press, the Frequency modulation
   advantages of, 153-154, 177-179
   development of, 126
   eliminates static, 126, 153, 155
   explanation of, 154-155
   first commercial license for, 157, 159, 171 first demonstrations of, 156-157
   future costs of, 182-183
   future uses of, 126-127
   network problems of, 182 obstacles to, 158-159
   opposition to, 156
   origin of, 155-156
   practical applications of, 159-160
   promotional problems in, 180-181 public reaction to, 158
   reallocation of frequency spectrum for, 157
   sources of equipment, problems of, 157-158
FREQUENCY MODULATION AND ITS FUTURE USES, Edwin H. Armstrong, 153-161
Friedman, Samuel L., cited, 10

Garofalo, Pietro, 72
Garrison, William Lloyd, 37
GATES, SHERWOOD, Radio in Relation to Recreation and Culture, 9-14
Gigli, Beniamino, 120
Giura, Favoino di, 72
Goebbels, Paul Joseph, 66, 76
Goldmark, Peter C., 143, 175

GOVERNMENT AND RADIO, THE, Mark Ethridge, 109-115 Government control of radio in foreign countries, 37-38
   in Germany, 70-71, 77
   in Great Britain, 38, 47-53
   See also Censorship Government regulation
   American tradition opposed to, 38
   broadcasters' attitudes toward, 109-115
   versus free competition, 97-101
Grandin, Thomas B., 84
   cited, 75, 76
Grant, Margaret, cited, 11
GRAVES, HAROLD N., JR., European Radio and the War, 75-82
   cited, 77, 80

Habicht, Theodor, 75
Hamilton, Guy C., 171
Hard, William, quoted, 38
Harding, Warren G., 54, 170
HAYS, ARTHUR GARFIELD, Civic Discussion Over the Air, 37-46
Henry VIII, 88
Henry, William, 84
HETTINGER, HERMAN S., Organizing Radio's Discoveries for Use, 170-189
   cited, 5, 11, 22
Hill, Frank Ernest, cited, 22
   quoted, 11
Hill, Russell, 85
Hitler, Adolf, 45, 65, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 76, 77, 78, 87
HOGAN, JOHN V. L., Facsimile and Its Future Uses, 162-169
   cited, 172
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 98
   quoted, 102, 105, 106
Hoover, Herbert, 17
Humboldt, Alexander von, 116

Jolson, Al (Asa Yoelson), 45
Jonson, Ben, 88

Karelsen, Mrs. Frank E., Jr., cited, 12
Kerker, William C., 88, 89
Kirby, E. M., 1
KOPLOVITZ, WILLIAM C., and WILLIAM J. DEMPSEY, Radio Economics and the Public Interest, 97-101

La Condamine, Charles Marie de, 116
Lasswell, Harold D., 71
Latry, François, 87
Lawrence, David, 44
Lazarsfeld, Paul F., 34, 35
Lee, Alfred McClung, cited, 70
Lee, Elizabeth Briant, cited, 70
Lenin, Nikolay, 69, 70

- Leopold III, 89
 Leseur, Larry, 84
 LEWIS, FULTON, JR., and THEODORE C. STREIBERT, Radio as a News Medium, 54-61 Listeners
   increased interest of, in news programs, 7, 56, 83
   Princeton study of, 35 selection of, 28
   study of, in Iowa, 56, 83
   tastes and preferences of, 13-14 Listening groups
   as "substitution" influence, 11
   growth of, 11
   number of, 11
 Lloyd George, David, 49, 51
 Long, Huey, 70
 Lorentz, Pare, 142
 Luther, Martin, 69
 Lyon, Leverett, S., cited, 187
 Lyon, Matthew, 37
 McCLINTON, H. L., Radio Entertainment Since 1935, 26-30
 MacDonald, J. Ramsay, 49, 50
 Mackenzie, Vernon, cited, 75, 76
 MacLeish, Archibald, 25, 138
 Maitland, A. S., 50
 Marconi, Guglielmo, 1, 117
 Marsh, C. S., cited, 121
 Micro wave broadcasting
   development of, 126
 MILLER, CLYDE R., Radio and Propaganda, 69-74
 Miller, Joseph, 138
 MILLER, NEVILLE, Self-Regulation in American Radio, 93-96
 Murray, Hugh, 116
 Murrow, Edward R., 84, 86, 87, 89
   quoted, 87
 Music programs, see Programs—music
 Mussolini, Benito, 69, 70, 72, 75
 Napoleon I, 71, 88
 National Association of Broadcasters, Code of function of Code Committee, 95
   provisions of, 95
   re controversial subjects, 43-44, 95-96, 108
   re religious broadcasts, 44
 NATURE OF TELEVISION PROGRAMS, THE, Gilbert Seldes, 138-144
 News by radio
   advantages of, 54
   amount of time devoted to, 56
   as stimulus to newspaper reading, 7, 59 editing of, 58
   first broadcast of, 54
   for farmers, 55-56
   furnished by affiliated stations, 57
     individual stations, 57-58
     press associations, 54-55, 90
     radio analysts, 55, 57, 90-91
     the networks, 57
   increase of, 7, 17-18, 21
   in the field of sports, 55 of Belgian withdrawal from war, 89 of Franco-German armistice, 88-89 scheduling of, to avoid conflict, 56-57
   See also Press, the; Listeners—increased interest of, in news programs Newspapers, see Press, the Ogburn, William F., 146
   quoted, 146-147
 OPEN QUESTIONS IN INTER-AMERICAN BROADCASTING, Philip L. Barbour, 116-124
 ORGANIZING RADIO'S DISCOVERIES FOR USE, Herman S. Hettinger, 170-189
 Overstreet, Bonaro W., cited, 40
 Overstreet, Harry A., cited, 40
 Oxford, Lord, quoted, 49
 PALEY, WILLIAM S., Broadcasting and American Society, 62-68
 PETER, PAUL F., The American Listener in 1940, 1-8 Political broadcasting
   as form of entertainment, 38-39
   in Great Britain, 50-52
 POSSIBLE SOCIAL EFFECTS OF TELEVISION, David Sarnoff, 145-152
 Power, Leonard, 34
 Press associations
   news broadcasts furnished by, 54-55, 90
   Press-Radio agreement, 54
   See also Press, the Press, the attitude of, toward radio advertising, 58-59 compared with radio, 39, 43, 58-60, 64-65, 83, 107, 185-186 freedom of, and freedom of radio, 93-94 number of weekday papers, 1929-1939, 59
   See also Freedom of speech; News by radio Priestley, J. B., 79, 87
   quoted, 80, 88
 Princeton Radio Project
   studies made by, 34-35
 Programs
   "America's Town Meeting of the Air"
     criticism of, 41
     groups formed as result of, 41
     origin of, 40-41
   analysis of
     by Federal Communications Commission, 15-16
     by individual stations, 18-22
     by National Broadcasting Company, 16 changes in, during past five years, 26-30

- criticism of, 8
- drama, 17, 24-25
- educational, definition of, 31
- extemporized, 23-24
- flexibility of, 20-21
- forum and discussion, 39-40
- greater variety of, 20
- in Great Britain, 52-53
- music, 10-11, 26, 16-17
  - increased interest in classical, 26
  - of local stations, 29
  - "People's Platform," 41
  - political, 38
    - as form of entertainment, 38-39
    - "public service," 32
    - serious, increase of, 22
    - should serve all "publics," 65-66
    - "soap operas," 8, 20
    - sustaining, quality of, 14
    - techniques, changes in, 22-25
    - trends in, 15-25, 28-29
    - types of, 4
    - "University of Chicago Round Table," 41
- See also Censorship; Children's programs; Education by radio; News by radio; Television
- Propaganda
  - by radio, 37-38, 69-74, 91-92
    - as spread by news commentators, 72-73
    - by short wave, 75-82, 119
    - dissolvent, 75-82
    - foreign, 72
      - analysis of, by C.B.S., 73-74, 92
      - has supplanted leaflets, 73
      - in controversial issues, 71-72
  - early forms of, 69
  - "free trade" in, 71-72
  - in totalitarian countries, 69-71
  - monopoly of, by broadcasters, 71
  - problem of, in United States, 71-72
- Public opinion
  - as basis of American radio system, 95
  - radio as a mold of, 39, 65
- Public recreation departments
  - use of radio by, 9-10
- Pupin, Michael I., 160
- Radio
  - as leisure-time activity, 8, 12
  - industry
    - number of persons engaged in, 3-4
    - pay roll of, 4
  - most popular form of entertainment, 26
  - sets
    - average daily use of, 2-3, 38
    - location of, 2
    - number of, 1-2, 38
    - number of families using, 2
- Radio Act of 1927
  - as revised in 1934, 110
  - change in law suggested, 110, 115
  - provisions of, 42, 94
- RADIO AND PROPAGANDA, Clyde R. Miller, 69-74
- RADIO AS AN AID TO LEARNING, Paul C. Reed, 31-36
- RADIO AS A NEWS MEDIUM, Theodore C. Streibert and Fulton Lewis, Jr., 54-61
- RADIO ECONOMICS AND THE PUBLIC INTEREST, William J. Dempsey and William C. Kopolovitz, 97-101
- RADIO ENTERTAINMENT SINCE 1935, H. L. McClin-ton, 26-30
- RADIO FRONTIERS, T. A. M. Craven, 125-129
- RADIO IN RELATION TO RECREATION AND CULTURE, Sherwood Gates, 9-14
- Rebroadcasting
  - growth of, 78-79
- Receiving sets, see Radio—sets
- RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN TELEVISION, Elmer W. Engstrom, 130-137
- Recreation departments, see Public recreation departments
- REED, PAUL C., Radio as an Aid to Learning, 31-36
- REGULATION OF RADIO BROADCASTING IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST, James Lawrence Fly, 102-108
- Reynaud, Paul, 89
- Riegel, O. W., cited, 75
- Rogerson, Sidney, 79
- Rolo, Charles J., cited, 76
- Roosevelt, Elliott, 44
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 17, 40, 70
- Rose, C. B., Jr., cited, 33, 64
- Runyon, C. R., 156, 157
- Rutherford, Samuel, 44
- Saerchinger, Cesar, cited, 75, 76
- St. Jean, Robert de, cited, 78
- SARNOFF, DAVID, Possible Social Effects of Television, 145-152
  - cited, 172, 176
- SELDES, GILBERT, The Nature of Television Programs, 138-144
  - cited, 176
- SELF-REGULATION IN AMERICAN RADIO, Neville Miller, 93-96
- Sevareid, Eric, 85, 89
  - quoted, 87-88
- Shakespeare, William, 29, 88, 138
- Shaw, Bernard, 140
- Sheean, Vincent, 73, 87, 88
- Sheen, Fulton J., 7
- Sheets, Paul H., 39
- Sherley, Swagar, 93
- Sherwood, Robert E., 87
- Shirer, William L., 84, 86, 87, 88, 89
- Short wave broadcasting
  - as stimulus to interest in Latin America, 117-118

- commercialization of, 119-121
  - problems in, 120
- compared to long wave broadcasting, 116-117
- effective use of, 122
- from Europe to United States, types of, 85-86
- history of, 117-118
- in promotion of cultural relations, 122-123
- present status of, 123-124
- stations
  - as propaganda medium, 75-82, 119
  - number of, 118
  - purpose of, 118-119
  - to Latin America, development of, 118
- Shuler, Robert P., 42, 96
- Smith, Kate, 56
- Stalin, Joseph, 45, 69
- Stamp, Josiah, 50
- STREIBERT, THEODORE C., and FULTON LEWIS, JR., Radio as a News Medium, 54-61
- Studebaker, John W., quoted, 6-7, 34
- Sullivan, Mark, cited, 171
- Summers, H. B., cited, 56
- Sumner, William Graham, cited, 69
- Sustaining programs
  - quality of, 14
- Swing, Raymond Gram, 53, 60
- Swinton, Ernest, 53

- Tallents, Stephen, cited, 75
- Tanner, Henry S., 116
- Taylor, Edmond, cited, 76, 92
- Television
  - as advertising medium, 148-149, 183-184
  - as competing with other media, 184-185
  - as information medium, 176-177
  - as propaganda medium, 149
  - assignment of frequency channels for, 134-136
  - effects of
    - by-products of, 150
    - on cultural standards, 151-152
    - on future entertainment, 128, 151-152, 176
    - radio propagation characteristics on, 133-134
  - future costs of, 182-183
  - in natural color, 125, 135
  - effect on programs, 142-144
  - experiments in, 175-176
  - first public demonstration of, 175
  - need for station networks, 133, 182
  - pickup process, 131-133
  - program material, 147-148
  - audience-participation, 141
  - facts, 142
  - fiction, 139-141
  - vaudeville, 141-142
  - promotional problem in, 180
  - recent developments in, 130-137, 174-175
  - reproduction characteristics, 130-131
  - telecast of Republican National Convention, 133, 145, 175
  - transmission standards, problem of, 104-105, 136
  - use of
    - in education, 149-150
    - in political campaigns, 127, 149
    - in recreation activities, 10
    - in theaters, 175-176
- Thomas, J. H., 49
- Thomas, Lowell, 176
- Toscanini, Arturo, 5
- Transradio Press Service
  - origin of, 54
  - serves radio primarily, 55
- TRENDS IN RADIO PROGRAMS, Kenneth G. Bartlett, 15-25
- Tyler, I. Keith, 34

- Warner, Albert, 86
- Wason, Elizabeth, 84
- Weld, Louis D. H., cited, 58
- West, Mae, 114
- WHITE, PAUL W., Covering a War for Radio, 83-92
  - cited, 87
- White, William L., 84, 87
- Wiebe, G. D., cited, 31
- Williams, Sande, 121
- Williams, Spencer, 86
- Willkie, Wendell L., 38